JT,

I wanted to take a minute and personally thank you and the entire team for helping me launch this successful new business. I'm just barely 2 months in and my first deal closed and this past Friday morning I woke up to a deposit of $13890.03 in my checking account. This was also the morning you took a few hours out of your busy schedule to speak with our team in Salt Lake City. Thank you for all of the valuable pointers I wrote down.

I have 3 more deals in the pipeline for $169000 that'll put another $11,000 in my account just in time for Christmas. Fridays no longer exist in my vocabulary, they will be henceforth known as payday!

Thank you!
